PRESS RELEASE

1st December 2011

For immediate release

Artist Management Service to be launched

A management service for bands and other artists is to be launched by Leicester's new social enterprise company Artsin Productions Ltd.

The launch event will be held on Thursday 15th December at the Exchange Bar in Rutland Street (opposite Curve Theatre) at 6 p.m. (for 6.30, finishing at 8 p.m.)

The new service will be provided (initially) to local bands, singers and entertainers who show promise and will help them to climb the ladder of success.

At the launch event, Director of Artsin, Trevor Locke will explain the way the service will operate. Trevor gained previous experience of managing local bands when he ran the national agency Get Your Band On.

Trevor Locke said "The artist management service is badly needed in Leicester, where we have so many superbly good artists. Our music scene is one of the best in the country but there is a strong need to help artists to get national recognition."

Also speaking at the event will be Kav Sandhu (previously in the band The Happy Mondays) who will be talking about his career in the music industry.

The formal launch will be followed by an evening of live music, featuring local bands Raptusound and 88 miles per hour (starts at 8.30).
