PRESS RELEASE

12th January 2012
for immediate release

LIVE MUSIC IN LEICESTER CELEBRATED IN ARTS EXHIBITION

Leicester's vibrant live music scene will be celebrated in an exhibition of photographs, launching on 20th January 2012.

The exhibition of photographs taken by local photographers will portray the imagery of live music through 20 pictures that have been selected by a panel of judges.

All the pictures are of Leicester musicians and singers performing live at local venues over 2011.

The exhibition, the first of its kind, will open at a launch event at the Red Tent Gallery, 8 Pocklington Walk, Leicester on Friday 20th January, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

The exhibition has been jointly curated by Trevor Locke (Editor of Arts in Leicestershire Magazine) and Curator and Gallery Director Magnus Gestsson.

When the exhibition closes at the Red Tent Gallery, it will then go on tour to other Leicester venues.

Entry to the exhibition is free and full details are available on Arts in Leicestershire magazine
