UP AND COMING LEICESTER TALENT TO FEATURE IN SHOW

New and up and coming local artists are to feature in a showcase event to be held on Thursday 4th August at the Sub91 Venue (in Granby Street.)

Urban music artists "K.Y." (Kyle Jarvis), "Matthew R" (Matthew Richards) and "Kode-M" (Mitchell Underwood) are three of the acts appearing on the line up at the Sub 91 show.

Organisers of the event Stay Grinding TV and Arts in Leicestershire Magazine have mounted the show to highlight the work of the new wave of Leicester rappers, MCs and DJs.

Editor of Artsin Leicester/shire magazine, Trevor Locke said "Leicester is alive with talented new acts in the genre of Urban Music. In a city dominated by rock bands, it's good to see so many promising young urban and hip-hop artists moving up the ladder. We want to showcase their work and give them an opportunity to play at a big venue."

Also on stage will be rappers NewBornz and the show will be headlined by one of Leicester's top hip-hop bands The Rugged Sound System.

Full details of the show are online
